

Thank you to all who auditioned. On behalf of Patrick, Lisa, Nick, Amelia and Pam, we are very excited to get to work with you on a show that promises to be a lot of fun.

There is a “blurb” at the end of this email that summarizes the show. That, and your character name, is all you’ll really know until we meet on Saturday and read through the script. So, the anticipation continues a bit. We are thrilled with the cast and can’t wait to get started!

See you on Saturday!

Cindy

Fantasy comes face to face with the hard reality of high school in this pop musical adventure where the best — and worst! — of both worlds meet. In the fairy tale world, princes are charming and stepsisters are wicked. But the Woodsman dreams of being more than an incidental character without a name. He wants to be the hero. When Cinderella's stepsisters find a portal to another world, they get zapped into a very real high school. The Woodsman jumps at the chance to rescue them, but the stepsisters have no intention of returning to the fantasy realm. After all, in the "real" world, mean girls are popular! The Woodsman finds himself in over his head and recruits the help of Danica, a hard-core realist who never believed in fairy tales. She's running for class president, but her speeches are filled with gloom and doom. Meanwhile, the sky is falling in the fantasy world! Without the Woodsman, Little Red is attacked by the wolf and Sleeping Beauty keeps pricking her finger on the ax while chopping her own firewood! Without the stepsisters, Cinderella's story is altered and her night at the ball is a disaster. As reality seeps into the fairy tales, the characters start to break free of their patterns and the classic princesses cross the portal and discover they can be their own heroes! You'll love this complex, rich tapestry of enchanted fun woven with a poignant, meaningful thread about what it means to be alive and in control of your own destiny.
